Statements of intent

Holy Trinity is a culturally diverse and multilingual community. Our English curriculum is designed in recognition of this with the main aim to ensure the best outcomes for ALL of our children regardless of starting points or backgrounds.

Reading intent

It is our intent that our children develop into confident readers, read widely and often at home and school for pleasure, for information and to expand and enhance their knowledge and understanding across all subjects. They are immersed in a reading curriculum that is rich and varied. Teachers model expert reading and use quality texts for children to interrogate. Through captivating imaginations, it is our aim that our children are motivated to apply progressively advanced skills that are transferrable to the digital and global world. Our children not only learn to read, they read to learn: reading is at the heart of our curriculum

Writing intent

It is our intent that our children develop into creative and competent writers, with the ability to demonstrate the key basic skills that will support them at every stage of their life. They will demonstrate relevant stage appropriate spellings and punctuation consistently throughout their work.

Our children will be able to communicate their ideas effectively using a range of ambitious and appropriate vocabulary for a variety of different purposes. They will take pride in their presentation and discuss their writing, justifying choices and evaluating their work. The writing experiences and opportunities we provide will allow our children to become confident, independent authors.

Our ultimate aspiration is that we ignite a passion for learning which allows them to be successful on their next academic journey.

1. Legal framework

This policy has been created with regard to the following statutory guidance:

- DfE (2013) 'English programmes of study: key stages 1 and 2'
- DfE (2021) 'Statutory framework for the early years foundation stage'
- DfE (2022) 'The reading framework'.

This policy has been created in conjunction with the following school policies:

- Home / School Contract
- Assessment Policy
- Early Years Assessment Policy
- Phonics Policy
- Teaching and Learning Policy

2. Roles and responsibilities

The headteacher is responsible for:

- Appointing an appropriate subject leader.

The subject leader is responsible for:

- Encouraging staff to provide effective learning opportunities for pupils.
- Help to expand on colleagues' areas of expertise in English.
- Organising the deployment of resources and carrying out an annual audit of all related resources.
- Liaising with teachers across all phases.
- Communicating developments in the subject to all teaching staff and the SLT, as appropriate.
- Leading staff meetings and providing staff members with the appropriate training.
- Organising, providing and monitoring CPD opportunities regarding English skills.
- Ensuring common standards are met for recording and assessing pupils' performance.
- Advising on the contribution of English in other curriculum areas, including cross-curricular and extra-curricular activities.
- Collating assessment data and setting new priorities for the development of English in subsequent years.

Teachers are responsible for:

- Acting in accordance with this policy.
- Ensuring progression of pupils' English skills, with due regard to the national curriculum.
- Planning lessons effectively, ensuring a range of teaching methods are used to cover the content of the national curriculum.
- Liaising with the subject leader about key topics, resources and support for individual pupils.
- Monitoring the progress of pupils in their class and reporting this on an a termly basis.

- Reporting any concerns regarding the teaching of the subject to the subject leader or a member of the SLT.
- Undertaking any training that is necessary in order to effectively teach English.

The SENCO is responsible for:

- Liaising with the subject leader in order to implement and develop specialist English-based learning throughout the school.
- Organising and providing training for staff regarding the English curriculum for pupils with SEND.
- Advising staff on how best to support pupils' needs.
- Advising staff on the inclusion of English objectives in pupils' individual educational plans.
- Advising staff on the use of TAs in order to meet pupils' needs.

The pupil is responsible for:

- Ensuring they complete work on time and to the best of their ability.
- Ensuring they behave in accordance with the Home / School Contract

3. EYFS

All children within the EYFS are taught to develop their English skills as an integral part of the topic work covered during the academic year.

All English objectives are underpinned by the areas of learning and development that are required to shape educational programmes in early years settings.

In accordance with the literacy area of the early learning goals (ELGs) outlined in the 'Statutory framework for the early years foundation stage', children will be taught to:

- Demonstrate understanding of what has been read to them by retelling stories and narratives using their own words and recently introduced vocabulary.
- Anticipate, where appropriate, key events in stories.
- Use and understand recently introduced vocabulary during discussions about stories, non-fiction, rhymes and poems and during role-play.
- Say a sound for each letter in the alphabet and at least 10 digraphs.
- Read words consistent with their phonic knowledge by sound-blending.
- Read aloud simple sentences and books that are consistent to their phonic knowledge, including some common exception words.
- Write recognisable letters, most of which are correctly formed.
- Spell words by identifying sounds in them and representing the sounds with a letter or letters.
- Write simple phrases and sentences that can be read by others.

4. Phonics

Holy Trinity has adopted Bug Club Phonics as our Systematic Synthetic Phonics Programme. Initially, children are taught to read through this phonics scheme, learning sounds alongside sight vocabulary and tricky words. As their confidence increases the children can combine the sight vocabulary and sound skills to progress with their reading through simple phonically targeted books. Pupils in Year 2 and Key Stage 2 will continue with phonics until they are confident. Please see the Phonics Policy for further details of expectations regarding teaching and learning. Also see Appendix B "HT Reading Essentials" for broken down guidance on Phonics expectations for each year group.

5. Reading

Reading Books and 1-1 Reading

Each pupil reads a book appropriate to his/her reading age/level, as determined by the PERA/PIRA and PM Benchmark running record, though teachers may need to use their discretion if a child's ability of comprehension is considerably lower than the ability to read aloud accurately. Special schemes are available for those children whose reading ability is significantly below their chronological age, the choice to be made in consultation with the SENCO – Miss Tahira Wynter. There is also a bank of HI/LO reading books which can be accessed for pupils who will benefit from these. (Located outside of the Y5 and 6 classrooms). Children will also be allocated appropriately levelled e-books on their Bug Club accounts to read at home.

All children should read to the teacher on a regular basis, according to need, and a record kept on the GoRead online reading record. It is the expectation that every child will be heard read by the class teacher at least once a week. Assessments will identify the lowest 20% and these children will be targeted as every day readers. Comments recorded on GoRead will be linked to the reading TAF statements for each year group. Parents are encouraged to hear children read regularly and are also expected to record this on GoRead. In addition, children and parents can enter details of any other reading done on their own, either at home or at school. This could include a variety of reading material such as newspapers and magazines, as well as books. A Reading Reward Scheme is in place to encourage home/school contact with regard to reading. See Appendix B "HT Reading Essentials" for broken down guidance on 1-1 reading sessions for each year group.

Guided reading

Guided reading will occur daily and will look slightly different across the different year groups. In Reception and Key Stage 1, staff will make use of the Guided Reading books and teacher notes available from Bug Club Guided, which complement our Phonics scheme. Alongside this, children will be taught to answer different types of comprehension questions through the use of our Reading Gems. Across the week, there will be an opportunity for children to have a guided reading session with the teacher, as well as completing independent activities and reading for pleasure activities.

In KS2, lessons will be based around the Bug Club Comprehension scheme. Bug Club Comprehension focuses on developing children's core comprehension skills, encouraging discussion around a stimulating array of new whole texts and interactive online books. Children will have a booklet to work through each half term based on a whole class text. Teachers will ensure children are challenged appropriately by making use of differentiated resources available. Links will be made between the questions in the booklets and our school Reading Gems and a lesson a week will be dedicated to answering questions around these Gems. See Appendix C for Reading Gems

See Appendix B “HT Reading Essentials” for broken down structure of Guided Reading sessions for each year group.

Reading for Enjoyment:

Holy Trinity C of E Primary School is committed to developing and nurturing a love of reading. Members of staff are encouraged to share their favourite books with pupils and vice versa. A ‘What we are reading in class poster’ will be displayed in each classroom, to include what the teacher is reading at home. Each class will have a library area, with a range of texts types and age appropriate books. These books will be selected through pupil conferencing to ensure the books on the shelves are books the children wish to read. In addition, each class will have a box of books based on the 100 best books for children. That will form part of Holy Trinity Book Club. All classrooms also have access to the books listed on Pie Corbett’s Reading Spine list of books that should be read in each year group.

An Author of the Half Term display will be created in a central part of the school, showcasing a well-loved children’s author and their range of books. Children will be introduced to different author styles in writing lessons to widen their exposure and help them to select authors they will enjoy.

HT House Book Quizzes occur during the year where children throughout the school compete to win points for their Houses with questions around age appropriate books.

Story Time is a non-negotiable part of our school day. Teachers make this special by choosing high quality texts to share and engaging the children with their performance of the reading. See Appendix B “HT Reading Essentials” for further guidance given to staff around Reading for Pleasure.

At Holy Trinity we have strong links with West Bromwich central library and library boxes are delivered to our school.

6. Writing

Writing Curriculum

At Holy Trinity, our youngest children first experience writing through purposeful play where emergent writing is encouraged. Children are supported to develop their core muscle strength and gross and fine motor skills through planned activities including Write Dance and the teaching of Early Writing Shapes. High quality adult interactions and enabling environments allow children to embed these skills in their play.

In Reception and the Autumn Term of Year 1, pupils will develop their writing abilities using key concepts and ideas from Pie Corbett’s Talk 4 Writing scheme. We see the need for our pupils to have a high focus on storytelling and oral rehearsal of stories at this point in their writing journey. By the end of Autumn Term in Year 1 we aim for our pupils to be confident in their age related basic skills and confidently using their phonic knowledge to hold and compose sentences as well as orally telling stories.

From the Spring Term of Year 1 through to Year 6, we have adopted The Write Stuff by Jane Considine for our writing lessons, to bring clarity to the mechanics of writing. "The Write Stuff" follows a method called "Sentence Stacking" which refers to the fact that sentences are stacked together chronologically and organised to engage children with short, intensive moments of learning that they can then immediately apply to their own writing. An individual lesson is based on a sentence model, broken in to 3 learning chunks. Each learning chunk has specific success criteria that is shared with pupils and is broken down into three sections:

1. Initiate section – a stimulus to capture the children’s imagination, generate vocabulary and set up a sentence.
2. Model section – the teacher models a sentence that outlines clear writing features and techniques.
3. Enable section – the children write their sentence, following the model.

As well as these sentence stacking lessons, there are also a range of experience days included in the learning journey designed to immerse the children in a theme or give them hands on experience before they write.

This approach allows for daily speaking and listening activities within each classroom as well as perfectly marrying up with our Pedagogy: Nurture, Inspire, Enable, Achieve. It also has a high focus on introducing and exploring ambitious vocabulary, which we at Holy Trinity see as vital for our pupils.

Children are challenged to ‘Deepen the Moment’ which requires them to independently draw upon previously learnt skills and apply them to their writing during that chunk.

"The Write Stuff" uses three essential components to support children in becoming great writers

The three zones of writing :-

- IDEAS - The FANTASTICS uses a child friendly acronym to represent the nine idea lenses through which children can craft their ideas.
- TOOLS - The GRAMMARISTICS. The grammar rules of our language system and an accessible way to target weaknesses in pupils grammatical and linguistic structures.
- TECHNIQUES - The BOOMTASTICS which helps children capture 10 ways of adding drama and poetic devices to writing in a vivid visual.

As part of each learning journey, pupils are introduced to different author styles and encouraged to use a range of these in their writing.

Each unit ends with an independent write which follows a clear process of planning, writing and editing. Pupils are taught how to edit in three different ways;

- E1 Edit: The Revise Edit Type 1: These are often “little” adjustments or changes and tend to fall into one of these categories.
- E2 Edit: The Rewrite Edit Type 2: This is crucial and particularly for primary age pupils’ thinking needs to be attached to sentence rewrites. A rewrite would be appropriate if a sentence doesn’t make sense, could be restructured or generally improved.

- E3 Edit: The Reimagine Edit Type 3: This is when a writer wants to add more sentences to develop an idea further. Pupils are often resistant about adding more as it presents the problem of where to fit additional sentences.

Spelling

Pupils will be taught to spell the CEWs and spelling rules appropriate for their year group. Key words will be displayed to support children in practicing correct spelling. Spelling lists and key words will be sent home for children to practice. Where appropriate spelling may be taught alongside handwriting. Spellings will be assessed termly against year group expectations. See Appendix A for details of age related spelling expectations set out in the programmes of study.

Handwriting

Handwriting should be taught with the aim of developing a neat, cursive style for every child. At Holy Trinity Cof E Primary we use the Nelson Handwriting Scheme. Pupils are initially taught to write each letter using the order of the letter families (Curly caterpillars, One armed robots, Ladder letters and zig zag monsters). See Appendix. Expectations within written work across all subject areas should be of the pupil's best writing at all times. Pencil should be used for all written work unless children have achieved their 'Pen license' award.

The following points should be considered at any time when a child is writing:

- Correct posture
- Correct chair, table height and position/ feet on floor
- Correct tripod pencil grip
- Appropriate type of pencil, adequately sharpened.

In the Early Years Foundation Stage, opportunities for the development of written skills are provided on a daily basis, using varied types of medium e.g paint, sand trays, felts, crayons chalks etc. Initially pupils are encouraged to develop handwriting skills through the following pre writing activities:

Tracing, Colouring, Drawing, left to right patterns, and zigzag, curved, and straight lines as well as Write Dance.

See Appendix A for details of age related handwriting expectations set out in the programmes of study. See additional Handwriting policy for further details.

7. Speaking and Listening

Holy Trinity is committed to raising standards of listening skills and spoken language. The development of word knowledge, both intuitive and expressive is crucial for the child to access the curriculum. This is done through activities in 4 areas:

Listening: developing active listening strategies and critical skills of analysis

Activities - Listening, comprehending and following instructions, listening to others in discussions and debates without interrupting, repeating messages accurately.

Speaking: being able to speak clearly and develop and sustain ideas in talk

Activities – Answering questions appropriately, reading aloud, retelling stories, reporting back, describing situations and delivering messages accurately.

Group discussion and interaction: taking different roles in groups, making a range of contributions and working collaboratively.

Activities – Cooperating with others, taking notes and reporting back, organising and fulfilling roles and responsibilities, coming to agreements, arriving at decisions, carrying out investigations, making plans.

Drama: improvising and working in role, scripting and performing, and responding to performances.

Vocabulary

At Holy Trinity, we are aware that vocabulary acquisition is vital in raising standards in both reading and writing. Staff have a list of 'Tier' words in each year group. These will be specifically taught and referred to when appropriate in learning journeys. New taught vocabulary will follow the 'Word Aware' approach and children will be taught the meaning of the word, the synonyms and antonyms as well as the spelling and associated spelling rules. The children will be encouraged to use these words in their writing and to identify them in their reading texts. Children will be praised for using these words independently by use of stickers or sticky jewels.

Displays in the classroom will also have a vocabulary focus for each topic area and these should also be taught so that children can use them when communicating verbally or in writing.

8. Homework

Homework will be set on a weekly basis. Pupils in Years 1-6 will have an English workbook and teachers will set appropriate pages for the children to complete based on learning in school. Homework will focus on numerous aspects of English, for example, handwriting practice, reading, expanding vocabulary etc.

Pupils will take home a reading book and a library book each week and when appropriate supplementary reading resources such as flashcards or Common Exception Words.

9. Assessment and reporting of English

Children's work should be assessed on a regular basis in order to inform planning. 'TAF's' should be highlighted and dated for reading and writing at least half termly. Marking should be carried out in accordance with the school marking policy and ensure that the marking is used to help children make progress in their learning. The following assessments are carried out:

Writing Assessment –

- TAFs will be highlighted based on children's Independent writing at least once every half term.

- Teachers will formally report on children's writing levels termly using TAFS and recording on SIMs
- Spelling of Common Exception Words will be assessed every term on the half term

Reading Assessments –

- The progress of all pupils is regularly tracked through the PIRA/PERA reading assessments and, where necessary, the PM Benchmark Running Reading Records.
- NFER tests in Reading take place termly and are used to enable teachers to set appropriate targets and monitor progress more closely, as well as ensure the correct level guided/reading book is issued.

Phonics Assessment –

- Nursery, Reception and KS1 will complete a phonic assessment of all pupils half termly. Information from this will then be used to complete the school Phonic tracker and plan accordingly.
- In KS2 phonics assessments will take place for those groups who have phonic targets or specific phonic needs.

Statutory assessments

An EYFS Profile will be completed for each pupil in the final term of the year in which they reach age five. The progress and development of pupils within the EYFS is assessed against the ELGs outlined in the 'Statutory framework for the early years foundation stage'.

Year 1 Pupils will take a Phonics Screening Test in the Summer Term. Year 2 and Year 6 will complete reading and SPAG SATs in the Summer Term. Teachers in year 2 and 6 will also assess pupils against the Teacher Assessment Framework for Reading and Writing and decide if each child is working towards an expected level, at an expected level or at a greater depth. The results of these assessments will be reported to the Local Authority and shared with parents and with relevant staff.

Parents evenings will occur termly and parents will receive a written report about their child's progress during the Summer term every year. These will include information on pupils' attitudes towards English and their progress. An opportunity will be provided for parents to discuss this report with the relevant teachers.

The progress of pupils with SEND will be monitored by the SENCO.

10. Cross-curricular links

The English skills that are developed in English lessons are applied to and in every lesson that is conducted in accordance with the national curriculum. English skills make up the basis for all other future skills.

Writing across the curriculum forms an essential part of our approach and as such is encouraged using a variety of stimulus such as a prop, music or film clips and personal experiences or events in order to develop ideas and language for writing. Pupils will complete an extended write based on their learning in Science, History and Geography each half term.

Mathematics

In regards to mathematics, English skills contribute greatly. EYFS children encounter patterns, spaces and shapes in English lessons.

Further on in their development, pupils will learn a new and wider vocabulary which will include mathematic-specialist terms.

Pupils in KS1 come across stories that involve rhymes that include counting and sequencing.

Science

Pupils are expected to engage in research during science lessons. English skills are used here for writing a range of reports, and for verbally explaining their findings to the class and to a teacher.

Humanitarian subjects

Humanitarian subjects include history, geography and religious studies. These subjects require a technical and subject-specific jargon. English skills will be utilised here when learning the new jargon.

Researching is also required for these subjects, meaning that the register in which any work is written often needs to be adapted depending upon the task set.

Drama

English skills are fundamental for oral expression. Effective English skills will ensure a pupil feels confident taking part in group tasks and class discussion/performance. House Poetry Slams occur throughout the year as well as class assemblies and performances to encourage children to perform.

ICT

Using computer software, such as Word, develops a pupil's understanding of jargon, lexicon, sentence structure and many grammatical rules.

11. Equal opportunities

All pupils will have equal access to the English curriculum.

Gender, learning ability, physical ability, ethnicity, linguistic ability and/or cultural circumstances will not impede pupils from accessing English lessons.

If English is an additional language, a TA will be allocated to the pupil to provide extra help where needed. Additionally, outside support can be offered to the pupil.

Where it is inappropriate for a pupil to participate in a lesson due to reasons related to any of the factors outlined above, the lesson will be adapted to meet the pupil's needs and alternative arrangements involving extra support will be provided where necessary.

Children considered to have special needs in any aspect of English will have targets to address their specific needs set out in an All About Me document. Individual pupil difficulties are discussed regularly between class teacher and SENCO (Miss Tahirah Wynter). Reading schemes are available to support pupils with reading difficulties and precision teaching techniques are used regularly.

Cultural and gender differences are positively reflected in lessons and teaching materials used.

12. Monitoring and review

Moderation of writing will take place between year groups / phases and externally to provide robust judgements – once a term.

Monitoring of progress from pupils starting points will occur and pupil progress meetings will discuss actions that need to be taken to support specific children. Monitoring of books will provide clear evidence of the use of age related grammar and punctuation. Lesson drop ins support the monitoring of teaching and learning and pupil conferencing will allow us to gauge pupil enjoyment in reading and writing.

This policy will be reviewed annually by the subject leader.

A named member of the governing board will be briefed to oversee the teaching of English, and meets regularly with the subject leader to review progress.

Any changes made to this policy will be communicated to all teaching staff.

APPENDIX A

English programmes of study: key stages 1 and 2

All pupils within KS1 and KS2 are taught English in line with the requirements of the English national curriculum.

Years 1-6

Spoken language:

- Listen and respond appropriately to adults and their peers.
- Ask relevant questions to extend their understanding and knowledge.
- Use relevant strategies to build their vocabulary.
- Articulate and justify answers, arguments and opinions.
- Give well-structured descriptions, explanations and narratives for different purposes, including for expressing feelings.
- Maintain attention and participate actively in collaborative conversations, staying on topic and initiating and responding to comments.
- Use spoken language to develop understanding through speculating, hypothesising, imagining and exploring ideas.
- Speak audibly and fluently with an increasing command of Standard English.
- Participate in discussions, presentations, performances, role play, improvisations and debates.
- Gain, maintain and monitor the interest of the listener(s).
- Consider and evaluate different viewpoints, attending to and building on the contributions of others.
- Select and use appropriate registers for effective communication.

Year 1

Reading – word reading:

- Apply phonic knowledge and skills as the route to decode words.
- Respond speedily with the correct sound to graphemes (letters or groups of letters) for all 40+ phonemes, including, where applicable, alternative sounds for graphemes.
- Read accurately by blending sounds in unfamiliar words containing Grapheme Phoneme Correspondences (GPCs) that have been taught.
- Read common exception words, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word.
- Read words containing taught GPCs and –s, –es, –ing, –ed, –er and –est endings.
- Read other words of more than one syllable that contain taught GPCs.
- Read words with contractions, for example, I'm, I'll and we'll, and understand that the apostrophe represents the omitted letter(s).
- Accurately read aloud books that are consistent with their developing phonic knowledge and that do not require them to use other strategies to work out words.
- Re-read these books to build up their fluency and confidence in word reading.

Reading – comprehension:

- Develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by:
 - Listening to and discussing a wide range of poems, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which they can read independently.
 - Being encouraged to link what they read, or hear read, to their own experiences.
 - Becoming very familiar with key stories, fairy stories and traditional tales, retelling them and considering their particular characteristics.
 - Recognising and joining in with predictable phrases.
 - Learning to appreciate rhymes and poems, and to recite some by heart.
 - Discussing word meanings, linking new meanings to those already known.
- Understand both the books they can already read accurately and fluently and those they listen to by:
 - Drawing on what they already know or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher.
 - Checking that the text makes sense to them as they read and correct inaccurate reading.
 - Discussing the significance of the title and events.
 - Making inferences on the basis of what is being said and done.
 - Predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far.
- Participate in discussion about what is read to them, taking turns and listening to what others say.
- Explain clearly their understanding of what is read to them.

Writing – transcription:

- Spell:
 - Words containing each of the 40+ phonemes already taught.
 - Common exception words.
 - The days of the week.
 - Name the letters of the alphabet:
 - Naming the letters of the alphabet in order.
 - Using letter names to distinguish between alternative spellings of the same sound.
- Add prefixes and suffixes:
 - Using the spelling rule for adding -s or -es as the plural marker for nouns and the third person singular marker for verbs.
 - Using the prefix un-.
 - Using -ing, -ed, -er and -est where no changes are needed in the spelling of root words, for example helping, helper, eating, quicker and quickest.
- Apply simple spelling rules and guidance, as listed in English Appendix 1, as seen in the national curriculum.
- Write from memory simple sentences dictated by the teacher that include words using the GPCs and common exception words taught so far.

Handwriting:

- Sit correctly at a table, holding a pencil comfortably and correctly.
- Begin to form lower-case letters in a correct direction, starting and finishing in the right place.
- Form capital letters.

- Form digits 0-9.
- Understand which letters belong to which handwriting 'families' (i.e. letters that are formed in similar ways) and to practice these.

Writing – composition:

- Write sentences by:
 - Saying out loud what they are going to write about.
 - Composing a sentence orally before writing it.
 - Sequencing sentences to form short narratives.
 - Re-reading what they have written to check that it makes sense.
- Discuss what they have written with the teacher or other pupils.
- Read aloud their writing clearly enough to be heard by their peers and the teacher.

Writing – vocabulary, grammar and punctuation:

- Develop their understanding of the concepts set out in English Appendix 2 by:
 - Leaving spaces between words.
 - Joining words and joining clauses using.
 - Beginning to punctuate sentences using a capital letter and a full stop, question mark or exclamation mark.
 - Using a capital letter for names of people, places, the days of the week, and the personal pronoun 'I'.
 - Learning the grammar for Year 1 in English Appendix 2.
- Use the grammatical terminology in English Appendix 2 in discussing their writing.

Year 2

Reading – word reading:

- Continue to apply phonetic knowledge and skills to decode words until automatic decoding has become embedded and reading is fluent.
- Read accurately by blending the sounds in the words that contain the graphemes taught so far, especially recognising alternative sounds for graphemes.
- Read accurately words of two or more syllables that contain the same graphemes as above.
- Read words containing common suffixes.
- Read further common exception words, noting unusual correspondences between spelling and sound and where these occur in the word.
- Read most words quickly and accurately, without overt sounding and blending, when they have been frequently encountered.
- Read aloud books closely matched to their improving phonic knowledge, sounding out unfamiliar words accurately, automatically and without undue hesitation.
- Re-read these books to build up their fluency and confidence in word reading.

Reading – comprehension:

- Develop pleasure in reading, motivation to read, vocabulary and understanding by:
 - Listening to, discussing and expressing views about a wide range of contemporary and classical poetry, stories and non-fiction at a level beyond that at which they can read independently.

- Discussing the sequence of events in books and how items of information are related.
- Becoming increasingly familiar with and retelling a wider range of stories, fairy stories and traditional tales.
- Being introduced to non-fiction books that are structured in different ways.
- Recognising simple recurring literary language in stories and poetry.
- Discussing and clarifying the meanings of words, linking new meanings to known vocabulary.
- Discussing their favourite words and phrases.
- Continuing to build up a repertoire of poems learnt by heart, appreciating these and reciting some, with appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear.
- Understand both books that they can already read accurately and fluently and those they listen to by:
 - Drawing on what they already know, or background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher.
 - Checking that the text makes sense to them as they read and correct inaccurate reading.
 - Making inferences on what is being said and done.
 - Answering and asking questions.
 - Predicting what might happen on the basis of what has been read so far.
- Participate in discussion about books, poems and other works that are read to them and those that they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say.
- Explain and discuss their understanding of books, poems and other material, both those that they listen to and those that they read for themselves.

Writing - transcription:

- Pupils should be taught to spell by:
 - Segmenting spoken words into phonemes and representing these by graphemes, spelling many correctly.
 - Learning new ways of spelling phonemes for which one or more spellings are already known, and learn some words with each spelling, including a few common homophones.
 - Learning to spell common exception words.
 - Learning to spell more words with contracted forms.
 - Learning the possessive apostrophe (singular) for example, the girl's book.
 - Distinguishing between homophones and near-homophones.
- Add suffixes to spell longer words, including -ment, -ness, -ful, -less, -ly.
- Apply spelling rules and guidance, as listed in English Appendix 1.
- Write from memory simple sentences dictated by the teacher that include words using the GPCs, common exception words and punctuation taught so far.

Handwriting:

- Form lower-case letters of the correct size relative to one another.
- Start using some of the diagonal and horizontal strokes needed to join letters and understand which letters, when adjacent to one another, are best left unjoined.
- Write capital letters and digits of the correct size, orientation and relationship to one another and to lower case letters.

- Use spacing between words that reflects the size of the letters.

Writing – comprehension:

- Develop positive attitudes towards and stamina for writing by:
 - Writing narratives about personal experiences and those of others (real and fictional).
 - Writing about real events.
 - Writing poetry.
 - Writing for different purposes.
- Consider what they are going to write before beginning by:
 - Planning or saying out loud what they are going to write about.
 - Writing down ideas and/or key words, including new vocabulary.
 - Encapsulating what they want to say, sentence by sentence.
- Make simple additions, revisions and corrections to their own writing by:
 - Evaluating their writing with the teacher and other pupils.
 - Re-reading to check that their writing makes sense and that verbs to indicate time are used correctly and consistently, including verbs in the continuous form.
 - Proofreading to check for errors in spelling, grammar and punctuation, for example end of sentences punctuated correctly.
- Read aloud what they have written with appropriate intonation to make the meaning clear.

Writing – vocabulary, grammar and punctuation

- Develop their understanding of the concepts set out in English Appendix 2 by:
 - Learning how to use both familiar and new punctuation correctly (see English Appendix 2), including full stops, capital letters, exclamation marks, question marks, commas for lists and apostrophes for contracted forms and the possessive (singular).
- Learn how to use:
 - Sentences with different forms: statement, question, exclamation, command.
 - Expand upon phrases to describe and specify, for example, the blue butterfly.

Years 3 and 4

Reading – word reading:

- Apply their growing knowledge to root words, prefixes and suffixes (etymology and morphology) as listed in English Appendix 1, both to read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words they meet.
- Read further exception words, noting the unusual correspondences between spelling and sound, and where these occur in the word.

Reading – Comprehension:

- Develop positive attitudes to reading and understanding of what they read by:
 - Listening to and discussing a wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks.
 - Reading books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes.
 - Using dictionaries to check the meaning of words that they have read.
 - Increasing their familiarity with a wide range of books, including fairy stories, myths and legends, and retelling some of these orally.
 - Identifying themes and conventions in a wide range of books.
 - Preparing poems and play scripts to read aloud and perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone, volume and action.
 - Discussing words and phrases that capture the reader's interests and imagination.
 - Recognising some different forms of poetry, for example free verse, narrative poetry.
- Understanding what they read, in books they can read independently, by:
 - Checking that the text makes sense to them, discussing their understanding and explaining the meaning of words in context.
 - Asking questions to improve their understanding of a text.
 - Drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence.
 - Predicting what might happen from details stated and implied.
 - Identifying main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph and summarising these.
 - Identifying how language, structure, and presentation contribute to meaning.
- Retrieve and record information from non-fiction.
- Participate in discussion about both books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, taking turns and listening to what others say.

Writing - transcription:

- Use further prefixes and suffixes and understand how to add them to root words (English Appendix 1).
- Spell further homophones.
- Spell words that are often misspelt (English Appendix1).
- Place the possessive apostrophe accurately in words with regular plurals (for example, girls', boys') and in words with irregular plurals (for example, children's).
- Use the first two or three letters of a word to check its spelling in a dictionary.
- Write from memory simple sentences, dictated by the teacher, that include words and punctuation taught so far.

Handwriting:

- Use the diagonal and horizontal strokes that are needed to join letters and understand which letters, when adjacent to one another, are best left unjoined.
- Increase the legibility, consistency and quality of their handwriting (for example, by ensuring that the downstrokes of letters are parallel and equidistant; that lines of writing are spaced sufficiently so that the ascenders and descenders of letters do not touch).

Writing – composition:

- Plan their writing by:
 - Discussing writing similar to that which they are planning to write in order to understand and learn from its structure, vocabulary and grammar.
 - Discussing and recording ideas.
- Draft and write by:
 - Composing and rehearsing sentences orally (including dialogue), progressively building a varied and rich vocabulary and an increasing range of sentence structures (English Appendix 2).
 - Organising paragraphs around a theme.
 - In narratives, creating settings, characters and plot.
 - In non-narrative material, using simple organisational devices, for example headings and sub-headings.
- Evaluate and edit by:
 - Assessing the effectiveness of their own and other’s writing and suggest improvements.
 - Proposing changes to grammar and vocabulary to improve consistency, including the accurate use of pronouns in sentences.
- Proofreading for spelling and punctuation errors.
- Read aloud their own writing, to a group or the whole class, using appropriate intonation and controlling the tone and volume so that the meaning is clear.

Writing – vocabulary, grammar and punctuation:

- Develop their understanding of the concepts set out in English Appendix 2 by:
 - Extending the range of sentences with more than one clause by using a wider range of conjunctions, including when, if, because, although.
 - Using the present perfect form of verbs in contrast to the past tense.
 - Choosing nouns or pronouns appropriately for clarity and cohesion and to avoid repetition.
 - Using conjunctions, adverbs and prepositions to express time and cause.
 - Using fronted adverbials.
 - Learning the grammar for years 3 and 4 in English Appendix 2.
- Indicate grammatical and other features by:
 - Using commas after fronted adverbials.
 - Indicating possession by using the possessive apostrophe with plural nouns.
 - Using and punctuating direct speech.
- Use and understand the grammatical terminology in English Appendix 2 accurately and appropriately when discussing their writing and reading.

- Using brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis.
- Using semi-colons, colons or dashes to mark boundaries between independent clauses.
- Using a colon to introduce a list.
- Punctuating bullet points consistently.
- Use and understand the grammatical terminology in English Appendix 2 accurately and appropriately in discussing their writing and reading.

Guided Reading
Reception	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Guided Reading carousel daily for 30 minutes. • Carousel will be based on the book of the week and give children opportunities to practice a range of reading skills. • Adults will read phonics bugs books with the children in small ability groups (4-6 chn). • Recording on Go Read.
Year 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Initially, Year 1 are having two phonics lessons a day instead of Guided Reading. • When children are ready to move away from 2 Phonics lessons they will follow the format of year 2's Guided reading.
Year 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Year 2 will be on a two week cycle. • Week 1 will have a focus on a reading spine book. Day 1 – Shared read of the book. Day 2,3,4&5 – Guided Reading groups with adults, carousel of activities engaging with the book of the week/ reading for pleasure. • Week 2 will have a gem focus. Day 1 - Explicitly teach the gem whole class. Day 2,3&4 – Carousel of activities and adults to work in guided groups to answer some questions around the reading gem. Day 5 – children complete some questions on the reading gem (differentiated LA, MA, HA) • Please see KL example.
Years 3, 4 & 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use the Bug club booklets and books to teach from. • Planning for these are available on the bug club site. This should be read/ ideally printed before each session and teachers must be aware of the questions and possible answers on the day so that they are able to best guide the children. • Day 1 always has a vocabulary focus. Make links for children that we are focusing on the “Define Gem. Children can self-mark these pages. • Day 2 always takes the form of “The looking question is...” (this is always a retrieve gem questions so make those links for the children) “The clue question is”.... (this is always an inference gem question, make those links for the children and “The thinking question is...”(this question usually asks the children to use one of the other gems such as “relate” or “compare” • Day 3 is a discussion. Going forward, Day 3 will be combined into the processes of Day 1 and 2 meaning we have a day free. • Day 4 and 5 – Need to be marked/ checked by a teacher as these questions are harder and allow children to answer with wider responses. (These questions are a mix of gems – the planning will support you in identifying which ones.) • The free day: You can slot this in on whichever day of the week you like but we would like this extra day to have a focus on a specific gem. Please get into the habit of analysing your NFER tests and identifying which gem questions children seem to be getting stuck on and explicitly teach this gem – chn will have some questions about their current text to answer based on this gem. • Some children have reported that they are not challenged enough in Guided reading. We know that the booklets are very challenging so please ensure expectations of the level of responses are set. It might be appropriate for some LA children to answer with one word or a short phrase but ensure your more able children are writing in full sentences and as if they are answering 2 or 3 mark questions. Please don't forget that there are support and extend sheets available online to help challenge and scaffold.
Year 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Year 6 will follow the same guidance as Years 3-5, however they will have a little bit more freedom to deliver some sessions that teach good SATs practice and skills. This could be done on the free day.

1-1 Reading

Reception	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Guided Reading carousel daily for 30 minutes.• Carousel will be based on the book of the week and give children opportunities to practice a range of reading skills.• Adults will read phonics bugs books with the children in small ability groups (4-6 chn).• Recording on Go Read.
Years 1-6	How often? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• All children should be read with at least once a week.• Your bottom 20% should be every day readers.• Children should be identified who may need more regular 1-1 reading (3 times a week) When? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Use of Collective Worship time is effective for hearing a number of children read. Please ensure that you discuss with the children that although they are missing collective worship we will do a class prayer and moment of reflection later in the day – also ensure that the same children are not missing collective worship daily.• Be creative with use of adults – Readers in the in spare minutes – Have Go read ready to go and use whatever time you can. What should a 1-1 reading session look like? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Go read app open and adult typing as you go.• List of common exception words to look through as an ongoing assessment• List of gem questions to reference.• Ensure questions to check understanding are being asked but also ensure questions to deepen understanding are being asked to. Assessment/ Go read: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Comments on Go Read should be recorded at the time to ensure they are accurate.• Please use the TAF to inform what you are typing making sure that comments help assessment – be specific.• When asking questions write down the children’s responses.• Laptops are easier for recording comments than I-pads. Home engagement: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• In KS2 teach the children how to access Go Read for themselves and how to record their reading at home.• Chase up parents who aren’t engaging with Go Read and ask if they need support.• Children will get reading prizes for reading at home for every 10 books they read.• Please promote home engagement by making a big fuss of reading prizes and praising those that are doing it regularly.• Ensure books are regularly allocated to Bug Club and children/ parents know their log ins so they can go home and read E-books as well as the hard copy books we are sending home.

Phonics

Nursery	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Nursery will have phonics for 20 minutes a day. Nursery will use the planning, resources and guidance on Bug Club Phonics for “Phase 1 – Pre Reception). This will help children build on their understanding of Environmental sounds, Instrumental sounds, Body percussion (e.g. clapping and stamping), Rhythm and rhyme, Alliteration, Voice sounds & Oral blending and segmenting (e.g. hearing that d-o-g makes ‘dog’) The use of the activities on Bug Club Phonics will also be supplemented with some extra activities that staff feel are appropriate based on assessments.
Reception	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reception will be teaching Phase 2-4 phonics across the year (see LTP for pace). All lessons will use Bug Club Phonics. See separate Phonics lesson expectations Phonics trackers will be completed half termly to assess.
Year 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Children will receive phonics lessons daily using Bug Club phonics. Those who achieve the ELG in reading at the end Reception will start on Phase 5 phonics. Those who do not have ELG in reading at the end of Reception will start at the correct phase – these children will receive 2 phonics lessons a day. See separate Phonics lesson expectations Phonics trackers will be completed half termly to assess.
Year 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Chn who don’t pass phonics screening will receive daily phonics teaching using Bug Club Phonics. See separate Phonics lesson expectations. As soon as they are confident with Phase 5 phonics they will resume SPAG teaching. Phonics trackers will be completed half termly to assess.
Years 3-6	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All children who do not have a confident grasp of phonics that join our school in KS2 or children who did not pass their Phonics screening at the end of Year 2 will have a phonics intervention 3 times a week following the “Fast Track Phonics” scheme. All phonics intervention work to occur in a book– no whiteboards to be used. Phonics trackers will be completed half termly to assess.

Reading for Pleasure!

Storytimes:

- These should happen daily.
- Reading Spine books to be utilised in this session and across the year children all of these books read.
- Please try to share some texts from the authors being showcased in “Author of the Half Term” and show the children the “Author Styles” page to look at some of the things this author uses.
- Also consider children’s interests and fascinations
- Make it special, non-negotiable part of your day. Story time never drops off the timetable no matter what!
- PERFORM – Don’t forget to read ahead a little and work out the voices, pauses etc you might need to add in. Make it fun and exciting.

Books/ Book corners/ Book shelves:

- A nice inviting reading space will show children that we value their reading for pleasure time.
- Give the children time to access these areas during the day (a finishing activity, a treat, beginning of the day – wherever you can!)
- Let chn keep a book they have started to read in their tray or take home.
- We would like the children to have the opportunity to take books home with them – you could keep track of this by having a class list ontop of the book shelf and children write next to their name which th
- Encourage the children to fill in request forms for a certain author or type of book to be added to their shelf (KL will provide) let them know it is their book corner and they have a say.

And lastly, please make links! Children might not always notice that they are using a reading gem in Maths lesson to answer a reasoning question or that they are having to use their reading skills in a History lesson to learn some key facts etc. Until the children are able to make these links for themselves, help by making them for your class!
